Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor and Miss Bull left for Madison yesterday. Instead of Wednesday as noted in these columns. The Ocala Daily Banner may get a little ahead of things sometimes but it never wants to get behind.

There was a paper put on record yesterday in the clerk's office that may prove "mighty interesting reading" to our friends across the street. We say interesting because we know they rejoice in the prosperity of the Ocala Banner.

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Advanced spring and summer styles are pictured in The American Queen for February. Articles on "A Mother's Duty to Her Daughters," "Thrown on Her Own Resources," "In the Home Circle" and "Exercise for Growing Girls" are particularly interesting. The cover, in red and black, is one of the Malcolm Strauss series and is very attractive. Price of magazine, 50 cents per year. Office of publication, 31 East 17th Street, New York.

Mr. George Priest and Sheriff Sweat were among the prominent business men of Citrus county who visited Ocala Wednesday. Mr. Priest had the misfortune to have two horses drowned at Port Inglis last week and was here yesterday to buy others, and was accommodated at the livery and feed stable of Messrs Liddon and Standley. Mr. Priest is one of the most prosperous citizens of Citrus county, and next to Col. Dick Miller, of this county, has more buried treasure than any man in the state.

"FULL CASH VALUE."

Assessing property at its "full cash value," as directed by the governor merely revives an argument that has long since grown ancient and has been worn threadbare.

How are the assessors to arrive at the full cash value of a piece of property?

Here is a piece of property that sold a few years ago, say for a thousand dollars, today it cannot be sold for any price, either at public or at private sale—what valuation is the assessor to place upon it?

Take the Putnam house for instance at Palatka, or the big hotel at Punta Gorda, both of which have been closed for several years for the want of sufficient patronage to pay running expenses.

These hotels are large, beautiful and substantial buildings and cost several hundred thousand dollars, and in Boston, Philadelphia or New York would be worth upwards of a million dollars, but in Palatka or Punta Gorda how are their full cash value to be ascertained?

It is not the richness of the soil that gives value to country property or the finish that gives value to buildings in town or city. Property is worth its net cash rental value, and that is largely determined by the largeness or smallness of population and the laws of supply and demand.

A marble hotel somewhere in the woods off the line of transportation would have no cash value at all.

Some years ago we purchased a lot in this city at public sale and paid $1,800 for it. Today we can not get one fourth of that sum for it—how is its full cash value to be determined?

It may sound easy enough but when the assessors of Florida start out to assess property at "full cash value" they are undertaking a job that is as big as an elephant.

"Points" Relating to Bank Checks, Etc.

(Hawkins' New Catechism on Business)

A note is a promise to pay a certain sum of money to a certain person at a given time. Notes generally bear interest, but it should be so expressed.

When one gives a note it should be made payable at the bank with which they deposit. A careful record of the dates of maturity of all notes should be kept, and money deposited in time to meet them.

MUNROE & CHAMBLISS, Bankers.

Whist Club Entertained.

Miss Lena Bullock was the hostess of the Young Ladies' Whist Club Wednesday afternoon. There were twenty guests present and a delightful afternoon was spent in playing progressive whist.

The club prize, a handsome picture, was won by Miss Edith Platt, while Miss Ethel Sinclair won the visitor's prize, a dainty drawn work handkerchief.

Miss Bullock's guests were Mrs. D. S. Woodrow, Mrs. Wm. Hocker, Mrs. F. L. Watson, Mrs. C. Rheinauer, Mrs. Mallory Liddon, Mrs. J. J. Carstens, Misses Claud Bond, Florrie Crook, Meta Jewett, Luella Gary, Mary Reardon, Esther Weathers, Ethel Sinclair, Edith Platt, Emily Ford, Valeta Potter, Johnnie Liddon, Lina Baum, Sara Agnew and Sara Harris.

To Replenish the Birds.

Our sportsmen complain this year of the scarcity of birds compared with other seasons and it is feared that, like the buffalo on the plains, the Florida quail will soon become remarkable for their scarcity. In order to obviate this difficulty Maj. T. P. Bond suggests that the sportsmen "chip in" from ten to twenty five dollars each, or whatever sum is necessary, and purchase one or two thousand birds and turn them loose in different sections of the county.

We think the suggestion a good one and hope that it will be acted upon at once by our local and visiting sportsmen.

The Blame Is at Washington.

The Ocala Daily Banner is still sailing under the one cent postage ruling of its verdant postmaster—Tampa Tribune.

Ocala Reading Club.

The following "acrostic" was sent to the Ocala Reading Club by a friend with the request that if it met the approval of the Club it should be published in the Ocala Daily Banner.

This Reading Club meets weekly and is the principal literary organization in the city. The following is the acrostic:

There is a place where you may meet
Honored ladies, (whom we greet)
Ere the moments, all too fleet,

Onward into days shall run,
Come and join their ranks—for none
A rejection find, they are so kind,
Letting you in without a claim—
A love of books—the open sesame.

Reading and discussing something new
Every meeting they go through
A program, not so very long,
Doubtless ending with a song,
Increasing knowledge, cultivating the mind,
New ideas gained—you'll surely find
Good company and good culture here combined.

Cowper, and Hawthorne, and Longfellow too,
Leigh Hunt, and Bryant, and others not a few—
Unnumbered writers—they'll introduce,
Both pleasure and profit to yield for your use.

Life Certificate.

Prof. Josiah Varn, principal of the Ocala high school, received from Supt. Sheets yesterday a certificate which entitles him to teach in any of the schools of this state without standing any other examination.

This is a splendid tribute but it has been well earned.

Prof. Varn is a school enthusiast and is well equipped for work and is making a splendid record.

It was a fortunate day for Ocala when she secured his services.

Shooting Birds Without a License.

Paul and Kell Potts, of Atlanta, Ga., were arrested at Homosassa last week by Deputy Sheriff Sweat, charged with hunting without a license. They gave bond for their appearance before Judge Barton next Saturday.

Messrs. Young and deMuro, of this place, will represent the state, and Anderson and Hocker, of Ocala, the defense.—Inverness Chronicle.

Prominent Phosphate Men in Ocala.

Capt. John L. Inglis, Col. W. N. Camp, Mr. George F. Dittmer, Mr. C. W. Chace, Mr. J. M. Falconer, Mr. H. A. Ford, Mr. Edward Hiller, Mr. T. G. Gleichman, Mr. C. G. Meminger, Mr. L. R. Chazal, all prominent phosphate men, have been in close consultation in Ocala during the past several days.

A Good "Good-Roads" Builder.

Allan Rodgers, of Ocala, was here Monday to meet the board of county commissioners. He is an expert hard roads builder. Mr. Rodgers was an early settler of this section, and was heartily greeted by old-time residents.

—Inverness Chronicle.

Mr. D. E. Lang, of Dexter, Fla., one of the most prosperous of our turpentine operators, was in the city Wednesday and enrolled his name for the Ocala Daily Banner. Mr. Lang has for a long time been a subscriber to the Weekly Banner. We are glad to announce that the pathway of the Ocala Daily Banner is not only strewn with flowers but solid cash is also among the missiles that are showered upon it.

Mr. Frank Turner, of Gaiter, has purchased the Waldo place near Ocala. In former years, this was one of the largest plantations in the county, as well as the oldest. Mr. Turner says the house, although built many years before the war is in a splendid state of preservation. It is only a short distance from Ocala, and Mr. Turner purchased it in order to give his children the benefit of our splendid school facilities.

Frequently accidents occur in the household, which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises. For use in such cases Ballard's Snow Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy. Price, 25 and 50 cts. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Congressman Sparkman never forgets the newspaper men during a session of Congress, and the scribes never forget Mr. Sparkman. This may appear to be a game of "you tickle me and I tickle you," but it is not, as the Congressman and pencil pushers were friends before the former was in congress. He is a fool who seeks office and ignores the press.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Mr. Hugh Stanaland, who resides in the eastern part of the county near Lake Bryant was in Ocala Wednesday and paid this office a fraternal call. He is a native of the county and during the entire years of his nativity the Ocala Banner has been among his "household treasures" and is likely to continue as such for many years to come.

B. F. McGahagan Wednesday morning happened to a rather serious accident. He fell from the roof of his house seriously injuring his left thigh and breaking his left arm. Dr. Al L. Izlar was called in and tonight reports him as resting easily and will be all right in a few weeks.

Faults of digestion cause disorders of the liver, and the whole system becomes deranged. Herbine perfects the process of digestion and assimilation, and thus makes pure blood. Price 50 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jolly and a party of friends came up the Ocala river yesterday and were registered at the Ocala House. Mr. and Mrs. Jolly had never made the trip up this weird and meandering stream before and were very much delighted.

Mr. Pierce and daughter have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pearson. Mr. Pierce, in the early years of the discovery of phosphate, was one of the promoters in this county and may be remembered by many of our readers.

Terkeween Oil, the best liniment made, guaranteed by Tydings & Co.

The lecture under the auspices of the Alkahest Lyceum association next Wednesday will be first class in every respect. Prof. Varn, who is taking a lively interest in the affairs of the association, thinks Ocala is to be congratulated.
